

The New Jersey DO NOT CALL is a vital tool for all residents who do not wish to be bothered by unwanted sales calls. New Jersey's law is a vital link to protect us the FCC should not consider overturning it. The Federal government has not business interfeerring with laws that are passed by the individual states' legislatures.